A shareholder's capacity as such as of the Record Date will be proven by procuring a relevant written certificate or, alternatively, by direct online connection of the Company to the HELEX records. The relevant written certificate or electronic confirmation of shareholder capacity must be available to the Company no later than the third (3rd) day preceding the General Meeting, i.e. 26 June 2012.

All persons appearing in the HELEX records as Company shareholders as at the beginning of the fourth (4th) day preceding the 1st Adjourned General Meeting, i.e. 6 July 2012 (Record Date of 1st Adjourned General Meeting), will have the right to attend and vote at such meeting. It is noted that attendance at the General Meeting no longer requires the blocking of shares or adherence to any other similar procedure which would limit the shareholders' ability to sell and transfer shares during the period between the record date and the date of the General Meeting.

Each common share grants the right to one vote.

II. EXERCISE OF VOTING RIGHTS VIA REPRESENTATIVE

Shareholders may attend the General Meeting and vote either in person or via legally authorised representatives. Each Shareholder may appoint up to three (3) representatives. The General Meeting may be attended by legal persons represented by up to three (3) natural persons.

A representative acting on behalf of more than one Shareholder may cast a different vote for each Shareholder. If a Shareholder holds shares which appear in more than one securities account, such Shareholder may appoint a different representative for the shares appearing in each securities account.

A Shareholder may appoint a representative for a single general meeting or for as many meetings take place within a certain period of time.

A representative will vote as per the Shareholder's instructions, if any, and must archive the voting instructions for at least one (1) year from the submission of the General Meeting minutes to the competent authority or, if a decision is subject to publicity, from recording thereof in the Register of Societes Anonyme.

A Shareholder representative must, prior to the commencement of the General Meeting, notify the Company of any specific circumstances which Shareholders might find useful to assess the risk that such representative could serve interests other than those of the Shareholder.

A conflict of interests might particularly arise if the representative is:

- a) a controlling shareholder or other legal person or entity subject to the control of such Shareholder;
- b) a member of the Board of Directors or the general management of the Company, or of a controlling Shareholder or other legal person or entity subject to the control of such controlling Shareholder;
- c) an employee or certified auditor of the Company or of a controlling shareholder or other legal person or entity subject to the control of such controlling shareholder;
