

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Odysseas Christoforou (son of Stamatis)

Mr. Christoforou was born in 1969.

He holds a degree in Social Work from the University of West Attica and a Master's degree in Public Relations & Communication from Ulster University, Northern Ireland.

He has nearly 30 years of professional experience, having held senior executive positions in major Greek and multinational companies in the gaming sector, as well as in banking, financial services, and consulting.

Since June 2019, he has served as Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Allwyn Hellas (formerly OPAP), the largest gaming company in Greece. In this role, he played a key part in the implementation of the historic merger between OPAP and its parent company Allwyn, which created the second-largest listed gaming company globally in terms of EBITDA. He also serves as Chairman of the Compliance Committee and is a member of the Boards of Directors of subsidiaries of Allwyn Hellas. He has been with the company since 2014, when he joined as Chief Corporate & Regulatory Affairs and Communications Officer and member of the senior management team.

Previously, he served as Executive Advisor to the Governor at the Bank of Greece (2009–2014), General Director of Communications at Bank of Cyprus Group (2006–2008), General Director of Marketing & Communications at Emporiki Bank (2004–2006), and General Director of Sales & Communications at Ernst & Young South East Europe (2002–2004).

Mr. Christoforou has been an Independent Non-Executive Member of the Board of Directors of ELLAKTOR S.A. and a member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee since 2022.
